About the Concert

Being part of the Inaugural Forum, the concert aims to celebrate the fusion of human civilizations through music. The performance will include Buddhist and non-Buddhist, Chinese and non-

Chinese sonorities to highlight the interconnectedness of civilizations.

The concert will begin with a soul-stirring performance by violinist Sunny Wu a member of the Kusala Trio, in which he will delve into the emotional struggles that individuals face. Following this captivating opening, composer Tak Kei Wong will take the stage, skillfully expressing the intricate emotions that reside in every heart through his mesmerising guitar performance. The concert continues with the Kusala Trio - composer-vocalist Shin Tung Wong, violinist Sunny Wu, and saxophonist Hin Sing Yuen. Together, they will present the 'Heart Sutra Impressions' to set a peaceful atmosphere. Prepare to be transported to a meditative realm as Ocean Chan, a master shakuhachi musician, therapist, and theatre performer, graces us with the ethereal melodies of his Japanese bamboo flute. A highlight of the night is TroVessional, a dynamic group dedicated to preserving the rich heritage of Cantonese and Chinese music. They will present a series of Buddhist Naamyam. This performance promises to leave the audience with a heartwarming and uplifting musical experience.

The concert runs for approximately 1 hour and 30 minutes with an intermission.

音樂會簡介

作為首屆「人類的競爭與互鑑互補」論壇文藝表演，是次音樂會以音樂為媒介，讚揚人類文化的融合。演出包含佛教與非佛教、中國與非中國的音樂，藉以突顯文化互通互融。

音樂會由 Kusala Trio (善念學舍三重奏) 小提琴家 胡廣明先生拉開序幕，以小提琴的樂聲展現人類內心競爭衝突。作曲家 黃德基先生以結他訴說人心中細膩的情感。Kusala Trio 再送上以聲樂、小提琴及薩克斯管演繹的《般若心要》，營造平靜安詳的氛圍。著名尺八音樂家及治療師 陳偉光先生演奏日本尺八，為觀眾帶來一段禪修體驗。伍人粵 Band 積極推廣粵樂文化，將在傳統的基礎上以創新的表演方式為觀眾呈現音樂的融和。

音樂會長約 1 小時 30 分鐘，設中場休息一節。
